BALENA VOLADORA

A flying whale in the desert. Pulling a lever sets its wooden skeleton in motion, swimming above the sand.

HOW IT WORKS

RESONANCE

Four weatherproofed touch pads with embedded lighting were placed in the main square, built to handle snow, rain, and countless jumps. Each pad triggered a colour ripple across the facade, animating an ocean scene on the building's surface. When all four pads were activated at once, a final sequence of light and music played out.
